Autumn to Be Celebrated at Shaker Square's Second Annual Fallfest Holiday Lighting Ceremony Coming in November

Cleveland, Ohio, September 11, 2006 – Shaker Square will be celebrating autumn with its second annual Fallfest at the Square. Taking place on Saturday, September 30, 2006, Fallfest will begin at 12:00 noon with all kinds of kid and family oriented activities that will continue until 5:00 pm. Shaker Square will be decorated in fall finery, including pumpkins and bundled stalks of corn. Entertainment on each quadrant will include strolling entertainment, music, and dancing. The Square's incomparable restaurants will sell sampler-sized foods under the shade of a tent erected in front of their establishments.

Food, Crafts, Live Entertainment

Entertainment on each quadrant will include many live acts such as African Soul International, drumming, bluegrass music by Cats on Holiday, and more.

Interactive Fallfest events will include pumpkin painting, candy apple making, candle dipping, nature activities with Shaker Nature Center and wine tasting at fire-food & drink for Mom and Dad. Rounding out the fun will be music, strolling magicians, a caricaturist, as well as hayrides around Shaker Square for the whole family throughout the day!

As patrons stroll around the Square, they can buy sampler-sized portions of fall-inspired food from Shaker Square's award-winning participating restaurants and food stores.

Holiday Lighting Ceremony

The Holiday Lighting Ceremony is returning to Shaker Square on Saturday November 18, 2006 at 6:00 pm with Fox 8 News Wayne Dawson presiding over the festivities. Renowned gospel musicians Prayer Warriors will set the mood for Santa and elves as they throw the switch to light the towering pine tree.
